

Policy and advocacy

Develop the critical skills required to navigate policy and political processes and make change happen. Facilitated by Caterina Giorgi, Founder, For Purpose.

Government relations

Get an introduction to government, parliament, key political processes and opportunities to engage. Facilitated by Caterina Giorgi, Founder, For Purpose.

Policy writing: Developing compelling submissions

Explore how to prepare, approach and develop policy submissions. Facilitated by Caterina Giorgi, Founder, For Purpose.

Working with lived experience: Exploring practices, challenges and mindsets

Build the reflective capability of advocates, designers, and practitioners to enable a deeper understanding of participatory approaches and methods for lived experience inclusion for influencing systemic and social change. Facilitated by Morgan Cataldo.

We contain multitudes: An introduction to ethical storytelling in media and advocacy

Build knowledge, skills and confidence in exploring representations of lived experience and the impacts of stories and storytelling. Facilitated by Morgan Cataldo.

Engaging Media for Advocacy

Learn to translate policy and research into meaningful media coverage that progresses advocacy priorities. Facilitated by Jackson Pearse Policy and Communications.

Strategic Communication and Messaging

Develop knowledge and skills to create winning messages for advocacy, policy, campaigns and communications. Facilitated by Gemma Pitcher.

Email Management: Taking control of email

Learn how to process emails quickly and efficiently and understand the methods behind successful email management. Facilitated by Kate Harvey, Digital by Design.

Make every moment count: Time management strategies for success

Learn simple yet powerful strategies to improve your time management skills and waste less time while avoiding friction and problems. Facilitated by Kate Harvey, Digital by Design.